

Sound Heritage

Study Day 2

Friday 11 March 2016

Chawton House Library

9:00	Coffee/Tea and Registration
9:45	Welcome
10:00	Introduction: Dr Gillian Dow (Executive Director, Chawton House Library)
10:15	Ben Marks: "Striking a Balance: A Lesson in Harmony. A Practical Approach to Music and Musical Instruments in Historic Houses" (Historic Keyboard Conservator and Keeper of The Benton Fletcher Collection, Fenton House)
11:00	BREAK
11:15	Dr Matthew Stephens: "Making Music Matter: Creating a New Culture at Sydney Living Museums" (Research Librarian, Caroline Simpson Library & Research Collection, Sydney Living Museums)
12:00	LUNCH and visit to Jane Austen's House Museum
14:00	Professor Jeanice Brooks and Dr Samantha Carrasco: "The Austen Family Music Books"
14:30	Small group discussions on Sound Heritage project ideas from Study Day 1
15:30	Feedback and progress report
16:00	BREAK and optional short tour around Chawton House Library
16:30	Performance activity: "An Ancient Curious Collection: Musical Findings from Country Houses" led by Dr Vivian Montgomery (Longy School of Music, Massachusetts)
17.30	FINISH